

Cyviz Secures New Order in the Middle East

13.8.2026 12:00:09 CEST | Cyviz | Non-regulatory press releases

Cyviz AS has secured a new order valued at approximately USD 1.3 million from a leading investment organization in the Middle East.

The project includes the delivery of a business continuity and crisis management environment, comprising advanced visualization, collaboration, and operational technology solutions, as well as associated professional services.

The order further strengthens Cyviz' position within the region and reflects the company's growing role in supporting mission-critical environments for large enterprises and public sector organizations. The project builds on an established customer relationship.

"This contract reflects the trust we have built with a strategically important customer and demonstrates the value of combining technology, advisory services and long-term partnerships. We continue to see strong growth opportunities in the Middle East, where many organizations are investing in mission-critical environments for collaboration, decision-making and operational management," said Espen Gylvik, CEO of Cyviz.

The order will be delivered during Q4 2026.
